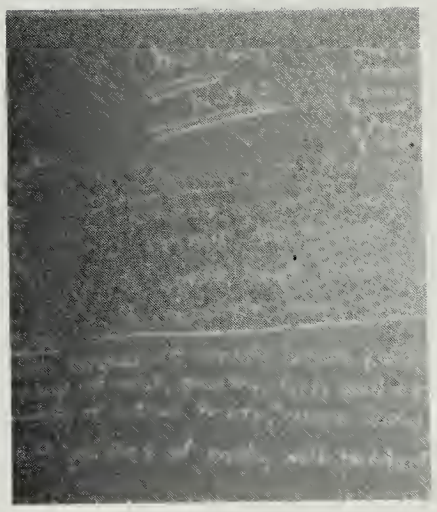
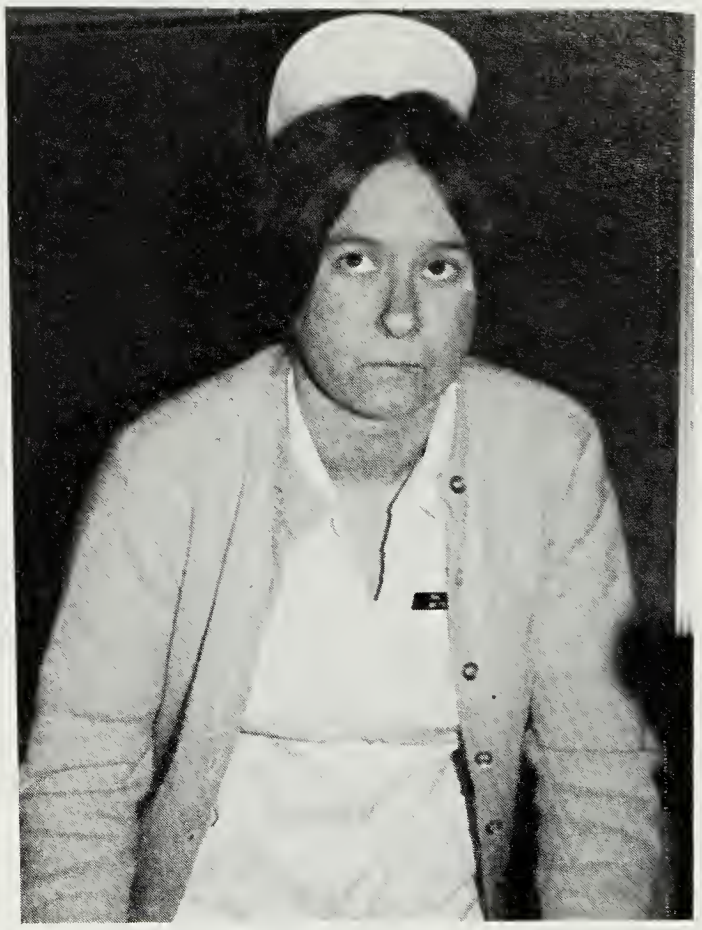
OUR CLASS

DEDICATION





We, the class of 1975, hereby dedicate our annual to Mrs. Patricia Brown Diem, a native of Eastville, Va. This is Mrs. Diem's first full year as an instructor at the NAM Hospital School of Practical Nursing. She graduated from the Petersburg General Hospital School of Nursing, Petersburg, Va. in 1968. Mrs. Diem also served for two years in the U.S. Army.

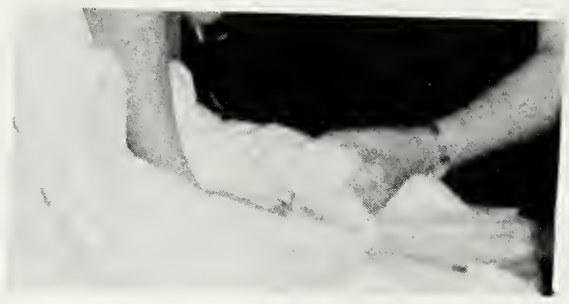
We would like to express our sincere appreciation for the personal concern she has shown each member of our class. Mrs. Diem has given considerable patience and understanding tc us in the classroom and in the hospital.

Mrs. Diem has put forth a lot of time and effort in helping to make our yearbook a success.

Mrs. Diem, the class of 1975 would like to thank you for contributing in making this year a memorable one.

THANK-YOU

DEMONSTRATION ROOM



LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Terry Barlage, of unsound mind and body, leave this school in a hurry!!!

I, Debbie Vest, do hereby leave my full trashcan, messy closet, wrinkled bed, stuffed drawers, and uncoordinated desk to next year's "neat and tidy" student.

I, Grace Kenney, of dirty mind and cleaned out bowels,leave an enema to next year's shy and modest student.

I Kathie Johnson, with lack of mind and plenty of sound body, leave my boots to anyone in Rm.#8 and a detective kit, to whoever is in Rm.# 9 to find out where that noise is coming from.

I, Nancy Boone, will my ability to chew gum in Mrs. Guy's class without her catching me, to whoever loves to pop gum.

I,Jill Holland leave my rocking chair and place in the demonstration room to next Year's studious student.

I, Cindy Rhodes will my Med.-Surg.II notes to next year's class.

I, Rena Ewing, will my ability to worry Mrs. Cramer, Mrs. Guy and Mrs. Diem , to death!!

I, Kathy Turner, will my ability to be late to class to Next year's prompt students.

I, Lynn Epps will my ability to those who can't afford to go home on weekends to fight out this place.

I 'Celestial Campbell with strained brain and sleepy eyes will my ability to steadily gain wt. to next year's skinny student.

I, Mary Lena Moore, will my tired, worn out exhausted brain and the great joy I will have once I leave this place to next year's class.

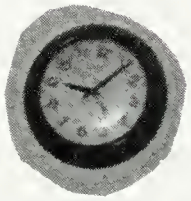
I, Ruby Martin, will my seat in the corner to anyone who likes to nap and my little brown face to Jill because she needs color andwants it very badly.

I, Connie Pruitt, leave one very cooperative husband to next years married students.

I, Elaine Ayres, will my ability to walk up stairs without falling to those students living in next year, especially after 9pm., when you're up to no good.

WHILE THE CAT'S AWAY....

The Mice Will Play



CANDID EXPRESSIONS

"You might think we're going to class."

"Grace, I'm going to kill you!"

"Who, me?"

"Is Bob here yet?"

"It's real alright!"

"And they said Med.Surg. 2 was easier."

"Foxy Lady"

"What have I done now?"

"I'm telling you it won't sell."

CLASS HISTORY

On September 16, 1974, the N.A.M. Hospital School of Practical Nursing opened it's doors to begin another year. Twenty-four girls gathered together anxiously awaiting class to start. The very first night Terry let several of us give her a new hair style. And that was just the beginning of the exciting months to come.

On Halloween night, Debbie dressed up as a gorilla and gave us all a scare.

One night the girls in room 9 thought they heard burglars at the window. Sure ya did!

We'll never forget Jill during study hours when she pulled the rocking chair in the demonstration room to study.

Speaking of demonstrations, we can't ever forget the day Ruby, Grace and Kathie did their skit about Betsy Prig and Sairy Gamp.

This was also the year for Mrs. Guy's new teeth!

Our bazaar was held on December 4th. Alot of time and work was spent on it and we were all pleased that it was a success. The night before Christmas holidays was quite festive in the dorm. There was carroling in the halls and many pranks and practical jokes were attempted. The next day the teachers gave us a party which included playing games and exchanging gifts. A good time was had by all. Then we all headed for home.

Finally, on January 8th, we wore our uniforms for the first time. That was a proud day for all of us.

There have been many weddings and engagement rings received this year. Debbie became engaged and Celestial got married during Christmas holidays Ruby waited a little later and was married in March. And Kathie and Mary Lena became engaged in April.

During the year, we visited two Nursing Homes on the Shore. But, our biggest trip has been going to the convention which was held in Virginia Beach, Va. at the Cavalier Hotel. Two things I'm sure we'll all remember are: Kathy getting lost and being late for the 1st day of the convention and Debbie stepping in the goldfish pond while trying to take a picture. After the convention we went shopping and returned home broke, but happy.

During the year, there have been times when our spirits have been low, but we have helped each other over these times. I feel that our experiences with life this year will make us better and more understanding human beings. We have all come a long way since September, but we now see many of our dreams coming true.
